

Summary/Abstract Guidelines

Provide a concise half to full-page abstract of the proposed research project. The information should be informative and provide enough detail of the motivation, approach, anticipated results and conclusions for the authorizing officials in the clearance string to understand and approve the institutional requirements and obligations associated with the project.